

I strongly favor allowing satellite radio to continue to provide local traffic and weather information, and very much resent the efforts of the NAB to limit the degree to which its competition (for which users willingly pay a fee) may augment and improve services. Please, therefore, reject the NAB's petition to hobble the development of satellite radio.